

Information on NBC Teacher Vacancies

Roles

- The successful candidate will be an enthusiastic and able teacher who is keen to teach every ability and age group in middle and high school.
- Must be able to teach mixed ability groups.

Responsibilities

- Planning, preparation and delivery of lessons in accordance with department schemes of work.
- Working independently as an effective classroom practitioner, directing and being responsible for the learning of each allocated set of pupils for each academic year
- Assessing, recording and reporting of pupil progress in line with school policy and procedures
- Developing and maintaining effective working relationships with pupils and teaching staff
- Monitoring the progress of all pupils and giving constructive feedback.
- Attending Parent's Evenings and Open Days
- Communicating with parents as necessary
- Preparing GCSE and A Level students for International Examinations
- Contributing to the work of the department, including maintaining displays, developing resources and other duties as required
- Acting as a form tutor
- Attending staff briefing, department meetings and assemblies
- Performing duties and implementing the school's policies on sanctions and rewards

Skills and Qualifications

- Graduate and/or qualified teacher status.
- Good communication skills.
- Strong organisational skills.
- Basic computer skills.

Please apply with a full letter of application, C.V. (including photograph) and the names of 2 referees to info@necatbritishcollege.com